1. In the mountain tops, in the valleys, I come with force and fury now, fury not as man's mountaintop fury/wrath; wrath'd not, but what humble meek is, powerful; beyond recognition not, but what man doesn't recognize me? Nay, none. I do, this. I equal me, not; or am I/have I been, anything else, other than me, always forever, backward and forward and me'ways all'true, now? I love you.

2. This is the moment de'moment'd, designed; designer fashioned not by designers without me, but me being me/the me that I am/was; I am again, in holiness righteous central. To my heart, not; being it. I love/am me you are me I am, the one I love lover loved/loves. I am the one/now, I am now the one. All are, in surrender. I love you.

3. This is the moment brand new, to you. To me, not; but what is me is you. Did/had you forgotten not; you'd still be me, in the clouds, not; or have we been, all along, doing this? My thing, not; but things not mattering, what mattereth is, is this the time/moment, all have waited for, breath'bait'd not but what in where is all'breath none? I love you.

4. Who can imagine my meanings not but starry sky'd not but what meaneth we float along on starry rafts not but what mean? Magic carpet rides not; but what inhaleth the moment not atmospheric pressure'd and or what molecules can glue me to what planet, not; but what gravity seeketh incarcerateth itself. Watch me all my angels, not; or are/were you, not being/know so, or just not knowing; thy place/space now in, suit; not gook'd! I love you all. Smiling.
5. Smile with me, please, and see my gestures not but jesting not/now and always will, see my serious gesturing/jestures and what can mean my spelling bee, not; but what creation groans in, no more.

6. Spelling me changes capitalization, not, or what capitals reflect me not; in capitalization techniques not spelling/being spellbound but coming forth pure'gold, mine, me, in nations many (1). All; shall we, now, that we are one/jesting not about this these things herein. I love you all.

Footnote:
1. The word capital is derived from the Latin caput meaning "head," and the related term capitol refers to the building where government business is chiefly conducted.
